Day 5 (Friday): Bwabwata National Park (230km)

In the morning we visit a traditional village to learn more about the custom and culture of the Kavango people, who have upheld a subsistence farming way of life for hundreds of years. Our route then takes us to the western border of the Bwabwata National Park. Our lodge lies in the lush vegetation lining the banks of the mighty Kavango River. Enjoy an optional activity like a sundowner cruise on the Kavango River and also visit the Popa Falls.

Overnight at Divava Okavango Lodge & Spa (Bed & Breakfast)

Day 6 (Saturday): Mahangu National Park (50km)

After breakfast we enjoy a game drive into the Mahangu National Park, home to rare animal species like puku, lechwe, roan and sable which in turn attract a large variety of predators such as lion, leopard and even the highly endangered wild dog. Mahangu is divided into three different habitats, namely the Kavango River, the flood plains (known as “omurambas”) and dense woodlands – the combination of which create a haven for over 300 different bird species. Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure in the comfort of your lodge.
